Because Imperial Pilsner is Russian, too.

Throughout history, the Eastern Front is where German and Slavic lands overlap, both geographically and culturally, and occasionally in olden times, even militarily. Hence NABC's assertive, hoppy Eastern Front and its stylistic positioning as a "Russian" Imperial Pilsner. An April seasonal release, with limited quantities of draft available to NABC accounts in 13.2 gallon kegs.

Pair Eastern Front with zakuski: Funky cheeses, caviar, smoked meats and pickled vegetables.
